GREENCASTLE HIGH SCHOOL
GREENCASTLE - INDIANA

Dedication

WE ARE PROUD TO DEDICATE THE 1952 MINARET
TO MISS WALLS IN COMMEMORATION OF HER
MANY YEARS OF FAITHFUL SERVICE BOTH TO THE SCHOOL AND TO THE MINARET.

Here in this castle we encountered many problems. Here we triumphed and won honor or met defeat.

Our Castle on the Green

The Halls of Our Castle

No round table discussion, as in the days of King Arthur's knights, takes place in our halls; just talk between classes. These most popular periods of the day gave us time to gossip, compare notes, and get our exercise.

Our student librarians were indeed friends in time of need, for they helped us to locate any book or information that we needed.

"Practice Makes Perfect" we were told. So we practiced day after day on the Underwood and the Royal.

These talented students were responsible for the colorful posters in the halls during the year and for many other fine pictures.

Study hall, grammar and composition class, and agriculture classes were a part of our daily routine. We learned much in our biology and home economics classes. Apprentices in shop classes will eventually become master craftsmen as a result of their work under the supervision of Mr. Schlatter.

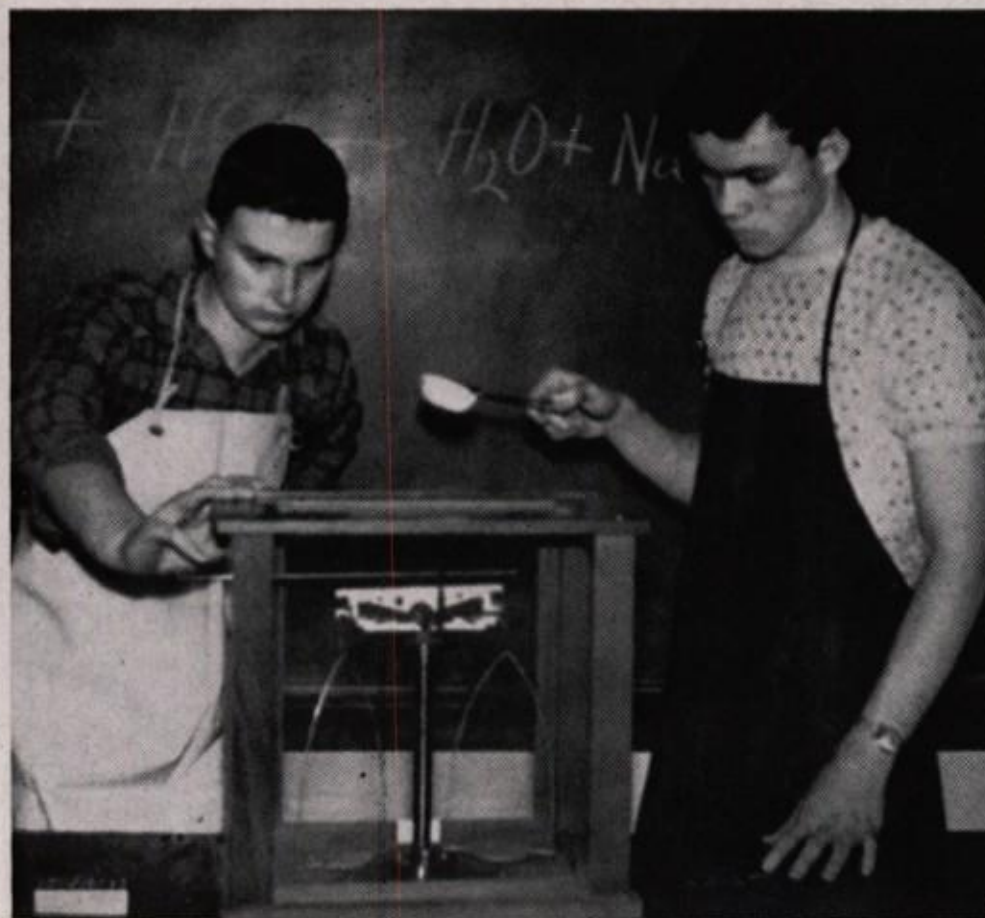

We were taught that "Punctuality is a Wise Virtue." We sought special permissions and advice here in our counselors' rooms.

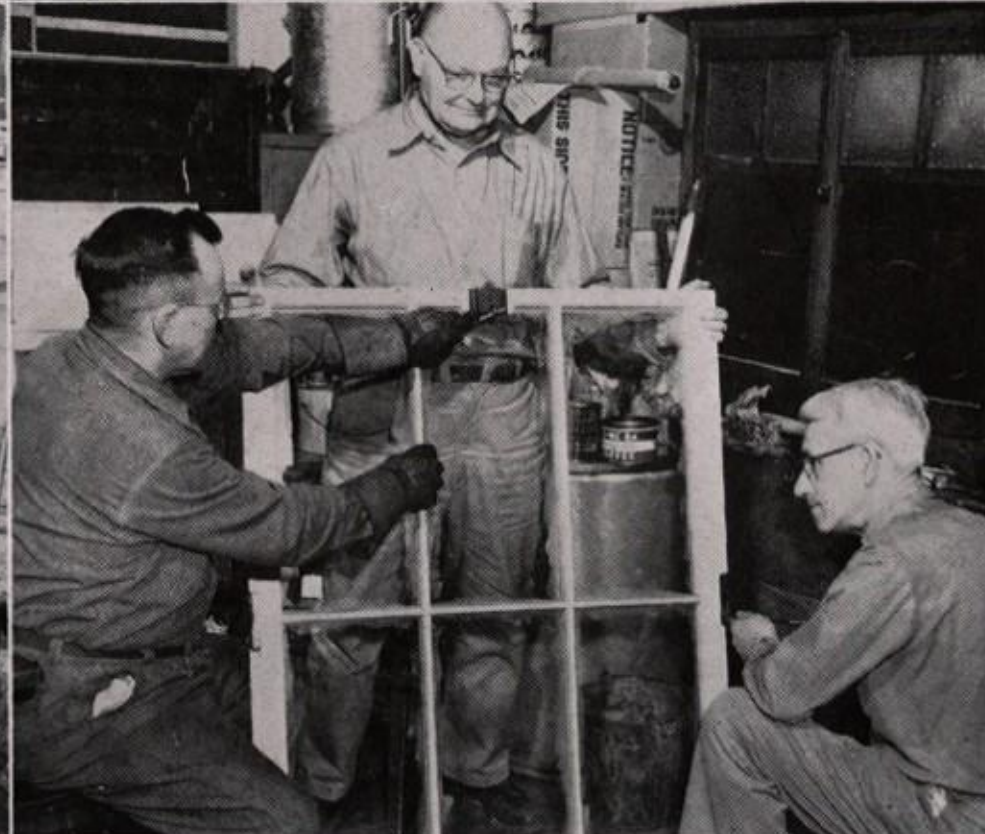

Mr. Marketto directed the court musicians in their daily practice. Physics challenged the mental ability of everyone enrolled. When play time rolled around, our stage crews proved to be invaluable. Civics and economics taught us the functions of governing our republic and how we shall determine our future.

The study of alchemy disclosed many secrets during our stay in the castle.

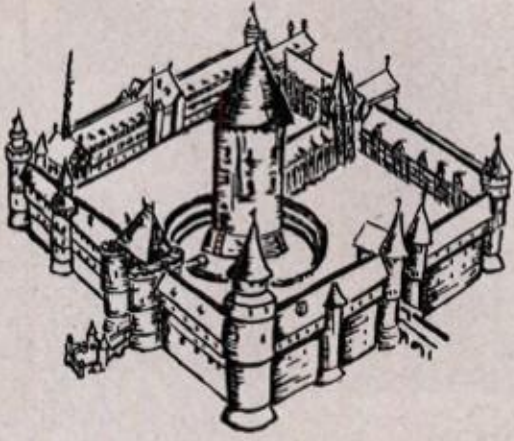

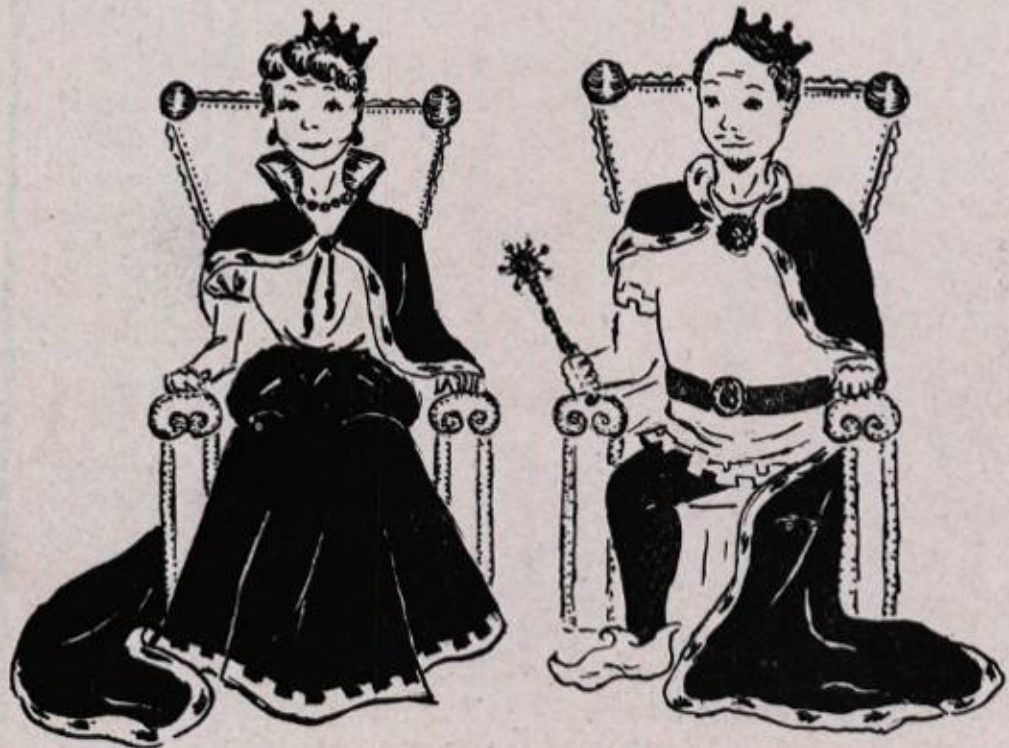

The new Freshmen had to undergo initiation before they became one of us. Pep sessions gave our team the inspiration it needed to achieve a successful ball season. Day is done—and the busses line up to take us from our “Castle on the Green.” What would we do without our friendly janitors to keep our castle clean?

Diversified Occupations class provided related information for our outside work experience. The efficient office workers helped us in many ways in our castle.

Knights and Ladies

As Freshmen we elected David Alexander, president; Gordon Whitman, vice-president; Flo Ann McGuffey, secretary; Doyne McKeehan, treasurer. Jeannie King and Bill Brown were our Student Council representatives.

We and the Sophomores exchanged parties during the Freshman and Sophomore years. In our second year of high school, we chose the following class officers: Joan Feld, president; Bill Brown, vice-president; Marlene Evens, secretary; Bobby Lee Bryan, treasurer. Marlene Evens and Gordon Whitman represented us on the Student Council.

As Juniors, we began thinking about becoming dignified Seniors. Our class play, "Cheaper by the Dozen", starred Doyne McKeehan in the famous role of Frank Gilbreth. Class rings and jewelry were purchased; and in May, we invited the Seniors to the long awaited 1951 Prom. We elected Larry Shaughnessy, president; Gordon Whitman, vice-president; Marietta Sanford, secretary; and Betty Campbell, treasurer. Student Council representatives were Gwyndolyn Pierce, Gordon Whitman, and Evan Crawley.

Becoming dignified Seniors, we knew we had reached a milestone. Our major projects of this final year were publication of the 1952 Minaret, our class picnic, and the Senior Class Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." Gordon Whitman, Chitra Hutchison Johns, Helen Plummer, and Joan Feld represented us on the Student Council, Class Day, Honor Day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement finally arrived, and we were sad but proud to become graduates of GHS.

Senior Class Officers: President, Doyne McKeehan; vice-president, Gordon Whitman; secretary, Marietta Sanford; treasurer, Betty Campbell. Sponsoring this group of Seniors are Mr. Stuckey, Mr. Stewart, and Miss Adams.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, here it is 1960, and, with our new electric crystal ball, we shall be able to see how the graduates of 1952 from Greencastle High School are living. This class of only seventy-five students—oh, here comes a vision on the crystal ball now. Well, what do you know; it is New York City! And right on Park Avenue is Billy Bee's hair dressing shop. And there is Sherman Reeves's new movie house whose main attractions are Cowboy George Baldwin and Merry Marilyn Donelson. George's next picture is "Shaking in My Shoes", and Marilyn's is "Kiss Me Nimble, Kiss Me Quick." By the way, that was Barry Taylor who was shining shoes on that corner we just passed.

Farther down the street we see the home office of Esquire magazine. We hear Jeannie Sallust is a successful artist there. Frances Johns is a very popular model for Esquire now.

My, what a lot of GHS students went to New York! But there are several in Chicago, too, it seems. We can't visit Chicago without hearing excited whispers about that multi-millionaire's wife, the former Joan Ruble. Joan really must be a society gal from the looks of the Chicago Gazette, whose editor is Bill Brown and assistant Marion Lyon.

But John Braden is faithful to Greencastle, the crystal shows us; John will stay in Greencastle for a while as he is living in the poor house. You see, he bet on Bainbridge in the Sectional basketball tournament way back in his Senior year. Marge Davis is teaching at Fourth Ward. At Krogers we find Tom Schlatter as butcher. Evan Crawley is playing his violin at half-time at basketball games.

There is a new picture now! What is all this shouting and waving of banners for? Why, look, it is Susie Stewart. She has just been voted the outstanding woman taxi-driver of the year.

Katherine Skinner's wish came true—to go to Hollywood. There she is doing a bubble dance at a night club.

Barbara Zachary, by the way, is now called the "Blonde Bombshell" on the ladies' wrestling circuit.

Flo McGuffey has been proclaimed "Miss Milkmaid of 1960" in a recent contest, and Madalon Caruso has been voted the best-dressed woman of 1960.

Bill Masten, who inherited a fortune, is a multi-millionaire now. Doyne McKeehan is his loyal valet.

These visions go by quickly in the crystal ball. I wish there were some way to set it on slow motion. Maybe Madame Curie, Ann Dicks, could find a way to do that since she is such a successful scientist.

This looks like New York again. No, it is Indianatown, Indiana. There is Larry Shaughnessy's office on Main Street. Larry is a detective and has just uncovered a big case of—uh, a big case. Next door, Karen Barnaby is making big money in a department store on her new invention, a man exterminator. Her sales manager is Charlotte Taylor, I see.

The view is blurred here by some sort of passing circus. Oh, it is a flea circus—Marvin Knauer and Marion Lancaster's.

In another circus, the week's main feature is Anna Carmichael Evans, the Fat Lady. The hot-dog stand is, of course, run by Marlene Twomey, and you really should try one of the famous Twomey foot-long hot dogs.

That popular new opera star is coming into view now. Who is it? Why, Don Leer, of course. He is as popular in his profession as Marvin Evens, who is attempting to defend his title as heavy-weight boxing champion of the world.

Delcia Kearschner of the '52 class is successfully conducting a school for models. Two of her star pupils are Jean Nelson and Shirley Stites.

At Scott's Field, naturally, is Barbara Scott, who is an excellent flying instructor.

That popular and attractive writer of children's books, Marietta Sanford (or is it Sanford now?) has a full schedule of lectures to children next fall. Helping her number the pages is Jeannie King who has now learned to count to a billion. We have another person successful in literature from the '52 class also—Pat Gould. Her latest is "Susie Soprano."

Walter Poynter and Shobe Gould are the world's new Chocolate Kings.

Chitra Hutchison Johns and John Bergen have become actors. John's latest is "Bats in the Balcony" by Shake Speare, and Chitra's is "Penal Farm Papers" by Darles Chickens.

We see that Billy Brown and Joe Taylor have originated a new dance routine.

Bobby Lee Bryan with her day nursery to care for is quite a busy person.

Shirley Parker and Mary Alice Covert Nees are working in the new hosiery firm in Boston.

Carolyn Kelley has stopped the teasing about her red hair by a new wig from her "Style-Rite-Wig Shop." Bob Mahoney is a policeman on that block.

My, but Lila Hanna can take life easy with those new office machines in operation! Her job as secretary is a good one. She is probably so busy, though, that we will have to call on Doris Knauer, an excellent stenographer, to organize a reunion for the class. Maybe Marlene Evens, the famous interior decorator who remodeled the Subway recently, could help find a place for the reunion.

Our efficient salesmanship teacher at GHS is Ora Lady. David Carrico, by the way, is teaching the safety class there now. Keith Hatcher is instructing the milking demonstration team this year. Well, Well!

Virginia Redding, we hear, is now an Evangelist serving in the heart of North Africa.

Susan Bennett has a huge chicken farm out West and has a nice little family who are learning the trade. It seems that Jim Webb, who owns an overall manufacturing firm, is a great help to Susan and her husband in supplying clothes for the children.

Don Ward and Don Lawrence are making lollypops in the window of Helen Plummer Young's lollypop shop as penalty for stealing some.

What is all that fussing I hear? Why it is Gwendolyn Pierce's famous quintuplets fussing about having their pictures taken. The photographer, incidentally, is Joan Feld, who has carried on the Hirshburg profession with the camera since graduation. Gwendolyn's family isn't the only famous one. Leonard Wells is entering his three sets of twins in a baby show next week. Judy St. John is directing the show and is doing a very nice job.

Jack Lyon, by the way, is setting a new record as the Rip Van Winkle of 1960. Also setting new records is James Cox. Jim, however, is setting records on a turntable as Indiana's favorite disc jockey. George Pingleton and his group of quiz kids have a program following Jim's. "Advice to Young Mothers" by Audene Alspaugh and Betty Campbell is on the same station, by the way.

Dale Sillery is teaching a course in golfing at the Riviera Club in Indianapolis now, I see. Evalena Williams has adopted the name of Evalena Esther Williams because of her fine swimming and diving at the Riviera.

The crystal ball grows dark now, but it has been fun visiting with the GHS 1952 class. I think one may correctly say that this class has been one of the most happy and prosperous of any from GHS.

These students were elected in their Junior year and served as officers during their Senior year: Susie Stewart, Marietta Sanford, Lila Hanna, Marvin Evens.

THE INK POT

The Inkpot, our school paper, had its beginning thirty-one years ago. Elizabeth Tilden, a Junior, was the first editor on its first publication in 1921. "The Busybody" magazine was the predecessor of the Inkpot, whose name was selected from an old Greenwich Village paper by Miss Walls. Profit from printing of the Inkpot pays for the fine convocations we enjoy and for new library books. We receive exchange school papers from many other schools throughout the state. This year Miss Daggy's Grammar and Composition class edits the paper which comes out about every three weeks. Members of the staff are as follows:

Editor ----- Jim Clapp
 Assistant Editor --- Evan Crawley
 Business Manager - Marjorie Davis
 Assistant Business Manager ----

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, organized in 1944 in co-operation with the principal and the faculty, was formed to develop a growing appreciation of democracy, to provide systematic participation in the internal management of activities, and to promote in all ways the best interests of the school. The group operates through committees composed of one council member, five other students, and a faculty adviser. Until 1950 the membership was of students elected by their classmates, but Amendment I provided that one council member represent each home room. This year they held a Christmas party and decorated a huge tree for the main hall. Also they sponsored a Spring Swing Dance and helped in boosting the team.

The first team, (lower picture) composed of Eddie Strain, Gordon Whitman, Kenneth Torr, and Jimmy Webb, won national recognition when they took first place at the Atlantic Rural Exposition which was held in Richmond, Virginia, last fall. Gene and these boys deserve a lot of credit for all of the time and hard work they have put in.

Last Year's Junior Follies, presented by the class of 1952 and featuring the talent of GHS in an enjoyable manner, encouraged this year's Seniors to give another performance entitled "The Senior Follies" featuring the creative talent of the student body. This Senior Follies Chorus line gave a smooth dance routine to the tune of "Lullaby of Broadway." Their steps were clever and modern with twists, turns, and skips.

SENIOR FOLLIES CHORUS LINE

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

As Juniors we worked very hard to give a beautiful Prom on the theme "Over the Rainbow." Decorated with a huge rainbow, fluffy clouds, and shrubs backed by a white garden fence, the gymnasium assumed a spring-like appearance. Music was furnished by Fred Cezak.

Sports

Left to right, top to bottom:

BILL BROWN, 5'10", Senior, guard. With his masterly ball handling and brilliant defense, Billy gave his opponents many a bad moment.

DORWIN DUNCAN, 5'8½", Sophomore, guard. Rookie, the youngest member of the team, already shows promise of fancy floor play in coming seasons.

SHOBE GOULD, 6'0", Senior, center. Shobe's spring-like legs helped him take the ball away from many a taller player.

BILLY MASTEN, 5'6", Senior, guard. Billy made up for his lack of height with plenty of fighting spirit.

ALBERT McMAHEL, 6'0", Junior, forward. Al's specialty of snagging rebounds makes us glad that he will still be with us next year.

SHERMAN REEVES, 5'11", Senior, forward. Sherm was a tricky handler of the ball, and kept the opponents' heads spinning.

JOHN STEVENS, 5'9", Junior, guard. When Johnny hit 'em, he often sent them "long distance."

JOE TAYLOR, 5'10", Senior, forward. Joe's speed, and incomparable jump shot will long be remembered.

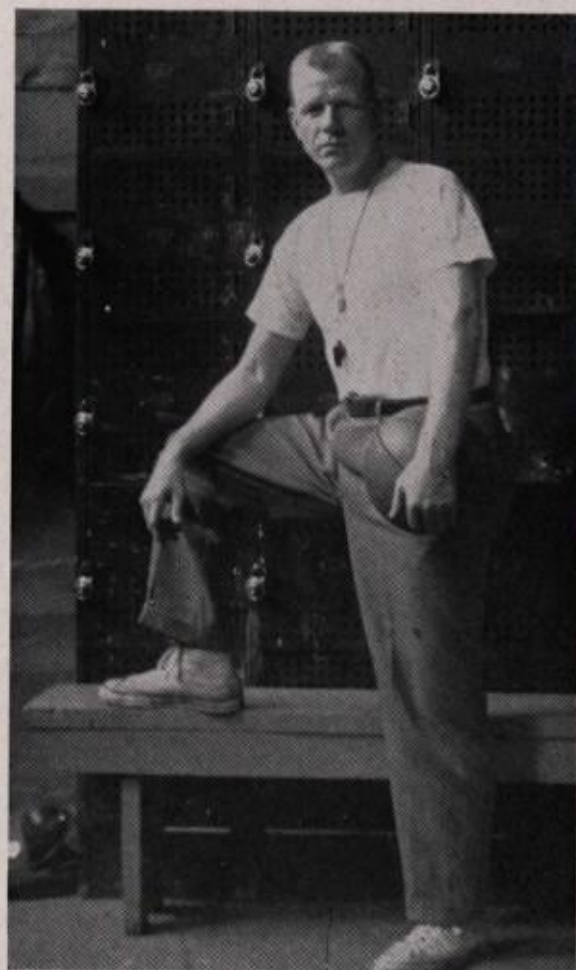

BOBBY WEST, 6'1", Junior, forward. When the going got rough, the team could depend on Bobby's marksmanship and aggressiveness in offensive play.

GORDON WHITMAN, 5'10", Senior, guard. No matter how tough the opposition, Gordy was always there with his coolness and accurate shooting.

KEITH HATCHER, 5'6", Senior, guard (no picture). Keith is a veteran of Greencastle's hardwood battles. We'll miss his speed next year.

"Tony", a rough blocker, played offense and defense. He gave all he had all the time.

GEORGE BALDWIN

George was a smashing guard and filled the center position in a five man defensive line.

CHARLES BIEBER

6' 0", 140 lbs., quarterback, Freshman.
"Chuck", a freshman and a good passer, saw limited action this season but should be a great passer by his Senior year.

JOHN BRADEN

5' 10", 170 lbs., Senior, fullback.
John made up for what he lacked in size with his determination.

BILLY BROWN

5' 10", 195 lbs., halfback, Senior.
Billy, swift and deceptive, was always a hard blocker and a good linebacker. He also gained the distinction of being kickoff man.

HENRY COFFMAN

6' 1", 210 lbs., tackle, Junior.
Henry was a constantly hard charger. This gained him a starting position.

Middle Row:

TOMMY DOUGHERTY

5' 8", 170 lbs., Freshman, guard.
Tommy was one of the three Freshmen on the squad and has great days ahead.

DORWIN DUNCAN

5' 7", 140 lbs., Sophomore, quarterback.
Dorwin, a veteran from last year, did almost all of the offensive quarterbacking. He may look forward to two more years with the Cubs.

SHOBE GOULD

5' 11", 155 lbs., Senior, end.
Shobe gained recognition as the outstanding line man. His speed and tackling gained him the safety spot on defense.

DON LEER

6' 1", 235 lbs., Senior, tackle.
Don, elected honorary captain by his teammates, was always a hard blocker and a good tackle.

BOB MAHONEY

5' 10", 220 lbs., Senior, tackle, guard.
Bob's speed and weight enabled him to fill either the tackle or guard position. Bob was a consistent starter who cost our opponents many touchdowns.

ALBERT McMAHEL

6' 0", 160 lbs., Junior, tackle.
"Al" was a strong defensive player. He will gain more recognition next year.

WALTER POYNTER

5' 11", 165 lbs., Senior, center.
"Birdog" was a newcomer to the squad this fall, but he soon gained recognition by his hard charging.

Bottom Row:

RICHARD PLUMMER

5' 7", 180 lbs., Sophomore, tackle.
Richard saw little action this season but has two more years with the Cubs.

SHERMAN REEVES

5' 11½", 155 lbs., Senior, end.
"Sherm" played defense and saw little action as offense. He, too, was a newcomer this year.

CHARLES SAATHOFF

5' 9½", Freshman, fullback.
"Chuck" started well but was put out of action with an injured ankle. He will have three more years on the squad.

DEAN SCHLATTER

6' 1", 200 lbs., Sophomore, tackle.
Dean saw little action this year but showed improvement. He should have an excellent year with the squad next year.

LARRY SHAUGHNESSY

5' 11", 145 lbs., Senior, end.
Larry played good defense and limited offense this season.

JOE TAYLOR

5' 10½", 155 lbs., Senior, halfback.
Joe was selected for the outstanding backfield man. He was fast and gained yardage consistently.

WARREN TERRY

5' 10", 180 lbs., Sophomore, center.
Warren was always in, scrapping with the opposition. Although he was a reserve, he was always on hand when assistance was needed.

YELL LEADERS

QUARTERBACK CLUB AWARD

At a banquet honoring the football team, the Quarterback Club awarded trophies to Shobe Gould, "most valuable lineman", and Joe Taylor, "most valuable backfield man."

GOING TO THE SEMI-FINALS

In the first game of the sectionals the Tiger Cubs rolled over Reelsville 65-40 and went on to win over Fillmore 41-32. That night in the final game the Cubs shot the works and beat Roachdale 67-36. Both regional games proved tough. In the afternoon, Joe Taylor's charity shot with five seconds to go won us the game 39-38. Richland Township gave us a run for our money, but Greencastle came out victorious with a score of 47-44. For the first time in thirteen years, Greencastle was in the "sweet sixteen." Even though we knew Tech was the largest school in Indiana, we knew that "they could put only five players on the floor" as Goldsberry so aptly put it. Tech was just too "hot", but we fought valiantly until the final gun went off with a score of 66-52.

Because of the interest raised by the coach, Al Nowak, the track turnout has been exceptionally large. The following boys are the track hopefuls of this year:
